

Anahata Cabernet Sauvignon 2020

Tech Specs

Type:	Red Still Wine
Ingredients:	cabernet sauvignon
Region/Subregion:	Columbia Valley, Yakima Valley
Organic?	Yes
Vegan?	Yes
Sustainable?	Yes
ABV:	1320.00%

A closer look...

Total Production:	568cs
Vineyard:	Tagaris
Soil:	silty loam
Age of Vines:	1983
Climate:	The high desert conditions of the Columbia Valley are tempered on the south facing slopes by the strong winds coming through the Columbia Gorge.
Farming Methods:	Organically farmed since its inception.
Fermentation Methods:	Spontaneous fermentation in open top fermenters, with pumpovers.
Winemaker:	Riley Miller
Elevage:	Finished in mostly used (80%) used French barrique for 10 months
Fining/Filtration:	None
Residual Sugars:	None
Acidity:	4.5g/L
SO ₂ :	20g

All about this bottle

This T. Edward exclusive has always brought quality, organic Cabernet Sauvignon from the Columbia Valley to our markets at an affordable price point, but beginning with the 2020 vintage we have begun collaborating with the talented Riley Miller of Sonder and Daughters & Sons.

In addition to being WSDA-certified organic, this wine is also delicious! We eschew a ton of new oak, using mostly used French barrique, and try to achieve a style true to the ripeness of quintessential Columbia Valley bottlings, without verging into the dessicated and dried fruit character (and over the top alcohol) that makes the competition less friendly with what's on your dinner table.

T EDWARD